 Send in people with guns to take guns from people that are not going to commit a crime.
 Seems like a solid plan.

 Looks like @IBMCanada supports stripping rights from Canadian Citizens. I wont give a dime to any company that has any relationship of any sort with these treasonous pigs.

You say that like it's a bad thing. Every company who wants to get in the business of infringing my rights, can expect the same treatment. And if they don't back down, they can expect worse.

There is no compromise to be had here. My rights are immutable. The end.
